Beginning our Lenten Journey

What turns us back to God? Maybe it's the sudden realization that our sin has left us anxious, tired, weary, and lonely. Maybe it's the grief that comes with knowing how much our sin has hurt other people or ourselves. Or maybe it's our lament that we have wasted time doing things that are empty and pointless. Whatever it is, there is a moment when we stop, turn around, and start walking toward God again. Jesus calls us to come back to him with our whole heart. Instead of being angry at us for drifting away, he offers us grace and mercy.
